 Vladim Škuta ? Prague, Czech Republic
Graduate of Film Studies and a student of Arts and Cultural Management at the Masaryk University, Czech Republic. During his studies, he has been granted a residency at the Jagiellonian University in Krakow (Poland), University of Oslo (Norway) and he has also participated in seminars in Bulgaria and Russia. Having raised a significant international perspective, Vladim Škuta is mainly concerned with European media, culture and arts in terms of their present changing aspects mutually affected by both the constantly improving technology and the ?new society? of nations gradually uniting not only in the EU. Vladim Škuta has a stable experience in working in the field of administration of arts and culture both as an employee of established organizations (e.g. One World - International Human Rights Documentary Film Festival, Institute of Documentary Film, YMCA Europe) and as a freelance production manager of Radim Labuda?s new-media project (Jindřich Chalupecký Award winner).
