

Decentralization i deconcentration of public administration in Poland

Written by Michał Grotkowski

Tuesday, 30 September 2014 19:46

Autor: Michał Grotkowski

Tytuł: Decentralization and i deconcentration of public administration in Poland

The article presents problem of deconcentration and decentralization of authority in Poland which are respectively the process of diversion and transferring competences and functions of the state, to which public administration has been subjected to over the past twenty four years. Modeling public administration associated with the influence of political doctrines. Characterized the relationship between public administrations at the provincial level, among government agencies and local government and on the level government - local government.

Key words: administrative reform, decentralization, deconcentration, government, local government.

File to download: [Decentralizacja i dekoncentracja administracji publicznej w Polsce](documents/publications/Decentralizacja_i_dekoncentracja_administracji_publicznej_w_Polsce.pdf "Decentralizacja i dekoncentracja administracji publicznej w Polsce")

