

Written by Administrator
Friday, 03 June 2011 13:57

Author: Michał Grotkowski

Title: The third sector in Poland - the role and risks associated with the performance of the functions and tasks of public administration

The article presents the view on the evolution of civil society and the trend of privatizing the administration an increasing area. It has been analyzed the place of the NGO sector in carrying out its functions and duties of administration with the reveal mechanisms of the delegation of tasks to NGOs. Characterized charitable, including the requirements to obtain such status and the benefits of this. It also presents risks for the third sector may result from the cooperation with the administration in fulfilling public duties and using public funds.

Key words: non-governmental organizations, NGO, charitable, profit, outsourcing, the privatization of public functions, public administration

File to download: [documents/publications/Trzeci_sektor.pdf](documents/publications/Trzeci_sektor.pdf "Trzeci sektor w Polsce - rola i zagrożenia płynące z wypełniania funkcji i zadań administracji publicznej") 